Case file: quarterly market context and category dynamics

1. Market frame

The tracked luxury market is measured using constant-scope management estimates. The case team should compare category growth with the House's own revenue and share trend rather than relying on one headline number.

Quarter	Luxury Market Growth %	House Share %	Market Code
FY24-Q1	6.2	18.4	MKT-27
FY24-Q2	7.1	18.6	MKT-27
FY24-Q3	5.8	18.1	MKT-27
FY24-Q4	4.9	17.9	MKT-27
FY25-Q1	4.4	17.6	MKT-27
FY25-Q2	3.9	17.3	MKT-27
FY25-Q3	3.2	17.1	MKT-27
FY25-Q4	2.8	16.9	MKT-27

2. Signals

- Tourist-heavy markets are normalizing faster than local-client markets.
- Leather goods remains the largest category in the internal mix.
- Digital clienteling is growing, but service cost is also rising.
- Category code SEG-LG is reused in the pricing workbook.
- Project code OM-27 appears in investment material.

3. Analyst notes

The market series is intentionally incomplete after FY25-Q4; a second dataset contains an alternate quarterly view. The two views can be reconciled using the Market Code.
